Within United Nations premises, all participants are required to comply with safety and security regulations, as well as the rules and procedures of the organization. Any act that disrupts the normal functioning of the organization's programmatic activities, such as public displays of any form, including, but not limited to, clothing, banners, placards or other written or visual means, as well as vocal/audio sounds, gatherings, or demonstrations of any kind, including passive, is not allowed.

All participants present on the United Nations premises are expected to fully cooperate with United Nations security officers at all times. Refusal to comply with applicable regulations may result in temporary detention or removal from or denial of access to the premises in accordance with Section 10 of the United Nations Headquarters Agreement and ST/AI/2019/5, entitled "Authority of United Nations Security Officers".

Names of youth delegates participating in the ECOSOC Youth forum as part of the delegations of their countries should be cited in the official note verbale, to be sent to the UN Secretariat.

UN grounds passes to civil society representatives, international organizations, youth-led and youth-focused organizations, regional youth platforms, youth advocates, and youth representatives nominated by the UN System will be handled by the UN Secretariat (More in section 2 below: Registration to the Forum and issuances of identification badges for non-government representatives).
