Introduction

Under ECOSOC resolution 1996/31, NGOs in general and special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council must submit to the Committee on NGOs, a brief report of their activities every 4 years, known as the quadrennial report, which includes information about contributions of the NGO to the work of the United Nations. To emphasize the need to abide strictly by this requirement, ECOSOC resolution 2008/4 stipulates measures that the Council has taken to suspend, and subsequently withdraw consultative status of organizations that fail to submit their reports on time.

The consultative relationship is a reciprocal one. NGOs are granted the privilege of participating in a wide variety of United Nations-sponsored events, meetings, and activities. In return, they are expected to contribute to the development aims of the Economic and Social Council, and the United Nations at large, based on their relevant areas of experience and expertise.

Thus, the quadrennial review presents an opportunity for NGOs to inform Member States about their activities in support of the United Nations, and at the same time, receive feedback from Member States on their programme of work as well as an official acknowledgement of their contribution as partners in development.

The quadrennial review exercise therefore serves as a critical tool in monitoring the relationship between the United Nations and the steadily growing number of NGOs in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council.
1. Who Needs to Submit?

Only NGOs in special or general consultative status are required to submit quadrennial reports. Organizations in roster status are not required to submit this report. To search the status of an organization, please click here.

The reporting cycle begins in the year an organization is granted status. In case of reclassification of status from Roster to Special, from Special to General, or from Roster to General, the year of reclassification marks the beginning of the new quadrennial reporting cycle.

As a rule, reports should be submitted no later than 1 June of the year following the last year of the reporting period. Therefore, a quadrennial report covering the 2019-2022 period should be submitted no later than 1 June 2023.

4. Completing your Report

The information must be typed as running text. Information presented in frames, boxes, columns, tables or graphs cannot be processed. Also, please do not provide any annexes or attachments since the Committee will not review any appended material.

Box 1 - Introduction

A brief introductory statement (no more than 2 or 3 sentences) should include information about your organization's area of work, goals, and geographical coverage. Please do not state "No Change". Please note that your organization's name or title must be exactly the same as the name in our system. If the name has changed, please indicate that in Box 3 under "Significant changes in the organization."

Box 2 - Aims and purposes of the organization

Enter a brief statement of the aims and purposes of your organization, and how your organization works to achieve those aims, including the main activities. It should not be more than 3 or 4 sentences. Please do not state "No Change".

Box 3 - Significant changes in the organization

Here you can list any changes in your organization's objectives, programme, or scope of work that may have had a significant impact, if any. These changes might include:

- an amendment to the constitution or by-laws;
- a change of name of your organization (please also see our website for instructions on how to change your organization's name in the official records of the United Nations);
- a change in the address of your headquarters if the headquarters of the organization has moved to a different country;
- an increase or significant change in the geographical distribution of the membership or funding;
- any new organizational affiliations or mergers with programmatic, legal or other implications; and/or
- a need for reclassification of consultative status with the Economic and Social Council.

*If there are no significant changes to the report, you can state "There have been no significant changes."
Box 4 - Contribution of the organization to the work of the United Nations

NGOs in consultative status are expected to undertake activities to advance the achievement of the development agenda of ECOSOC and the United Nations at large. Your report should therefore list your main activities over the past four years (during the reporting cycle) that are in support of that agenda. Please list no more than 5 or 6 activities that are most relevant for your organization starting with the most important/priority activities.

Box 5 - Participation in meetings of the United Nations

NGOs are encouraged to take part in appropriate intergovernmental meetings so that the work of the Council, and the United Nations at large, can benefit from your input. Participation in the work of the Council and its subsidiary bodies might include contributions to meetings and outcome documents or reports; oral and written statements; proposal of agenda items; and organization of parallel NGO meetings or side events, among others. For information about ECOSOC and its subsidiary bodies, please go to: https://www.un.org/ecosoc/en/home

Please be precise when you list your activities. Each reference to a conference or meeting attended or organized by the NGO should indicate the official title of the meeting (without acronyms and abbreviations), the United Nations agency or office organizing the meeting, the location where it took place (city and country) and the exact date of the meeting. Please indicate the nature of your participation (i.e., attending a meeting, participating in consultations or round tables, contributing to a report, etc.), and the title or theme of any document, contribution or statement presented by your organization at the event.

For example:
"Representatives attended the 93rd session of the Committee on the Rights of the Child (CRC) of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) for the review of France, and Jordan's reports under the Convention on the Rights of Child, Geneva, Switzerland, 8 - 26 May 2023."

Box 6 – Cooperation with United Nations Bodies

In this section, please list any cooperation your organization has had with a United Nations body, entity or agency in your country or elsewhere. Cooperation with United Nations agencies in the field or at Headquarters might include: joint funding, preparation, or contribution to events, research papers and studies, joint organization of meetings, humanitarian activities or operational projects, or financial assistance received from or given to the United Nations.

For example:
"The NGO Implemented a project in collaboration with the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) to create meeting points and contexts which promote adolescent education in Bolivia," Paraguay and Perú, from 2020 to 2021." Or, "The NGO signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with the United Nations Environmental Programme (UNEP) to enhance environmental governance in Africa through capacity building for law enforcement agencies in 2023."

Box 7 – Initiatives taken in support of the SDGs

In this section you can list all initiatives undertaken by your organization in support of internationally agreed development goals, in particular, the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which form the basis of the United Nations global peace and development agenda. For information about the SDGs please go to: https://sustainabledevelopment.un.org/sdgs.

For example:
"The organization contributed to SDG 3 in Madagascar, Benin and Gambia by providing nutritional care to 162,079 children and prenatal care to 7,950 expectant mothers during the reporting period."
You can also list your activities in support of global principles such as: "The organization observed the World AIDS Day each year on 1 December. It also commemorated the 2019 World AIDS Day at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City, resulting in a turnout of several thousand people and web-cast globally via the Kaiser Foundation network website."

If your organization did not undertake any specific activities you could state, for example: "Our organization’s activities did not focus on specific initiatives in fulfillment of the SDGs, but rather on supporting the overall development agenda through advocacy and outreach."

5. Editorial Guidelines

Quadrennial reports are expected to observe strict editorial guidelines before they can be considered ready for submission. If reports are improperly drafted and fail to follow the correct format, style and content, they may be refused.

Font: Please note that since the submission of the report is online, it includes a default font and does not require you to select one. However, please do not write in all capital letters, such as "THE NGO CELEBRATED THE INTERNATIONAL WOMEN’S DAY."

On Style: Please observe the following points:

- The report should be drafted in the third person. For example, use phrases such as "The organization attended..." not "I attended..." Please avoid the use of proper names and titles of people from your organization who attended.
- References to United Nations documents or publications should cite both the title and indicate the relevant symbols, if possible. Quotations should be referenced.
Abbreviations and acronyms (words formed from the initial letters of other words, e.g. UNESCO) should always be spelt out. As is good practice everywhere, the name or title should be written out in full the first time it occurs in a document, followed by the abbreviation in parentheses.

"United Nations" should not be abbreviated in English. The form "ONU" is acceptable in French.

In United Nations style, abbreviations and acronyms are written without periods, such as: UNDP, not U.N.D.P.

Do Not Use Acronyms: Do not use any acronyms for the following but write them in full:

- Titles of senior officials: Secretary-General, Under-Secretary-General, Special Representative of the Secretary-General;
- United Nations conventions, treaties, plans or programmes of action;
- Funds, programmes and agencies;
- Names of Member States
- The World Tourism Organization and the World Trade Organization, to avoid confusion;
- The International Criminal Court (to avoid confusion with organizations such as the International Chamber of Commerce);
- The International Court of Justice, the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and other courts and tribunals;
- Military or police forces, and military terms, such as: ASZ (air safety zone), GSZ (ground safety zone), EAF (Entity Armed Forces), JSF (Joint Security Forces), or DDR (disarmament, demobilization and reintegration);

Please note the correct terminology for the following countries and territories:

- Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela [Venezuela]
- Bosnia and Herzegovina
- Brunei Darussalam
- Democratic People's Republic of Korea [North Korea]

 These are territories.

The above list is a quick reference guide to the most frequently used terms, and should not be considered a comprehensive list of all geographic areas or territories. It also must be checked against the latest information available in the terminology database.

 Short Titles: A short title may be used to replace a name or title that occurs several times in a document, provided that the full name is used the first time it occurs and that there is no risk of ambiguity; the Assembly (the United Nations General Assembly), the Council (the Economic and Social Council), the Committee (The Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations), the United Kingdom (the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland), the United States (the United States of America).
