

The Vice-President
of the Economic and Social Council

27 May 2022

Excellency,

I would like to thank you for your participation in the informal consultations on the review of the work of the subsidiary bodies of the Economic and Social Council yesterday and for the comments provided.

After having listened to the concerns raised, a few changes have been made to the recommendations and the draft decision in order to alleviate those concerns. I believe the revisions address these sufficiently well.

I have the honor to share the revised versions of the recommendations and the decision in track and clean versions for ease of reference, and to place them under silence procedure until 5 p.m. on Tuesday, 31 May 2022. Following expiration of the silence procedure, it would be my intention to propose the draft decision for action at the management segment on 8-9 June 2022.

I would like to thank all delegations again for their cooperation and constructive engagement throughout this process. It is my sincere hope that delegations can all go along with the draft decision and the summary of recommendations. As always, please kindly approach me at any time to share your preliminary views or questions. Any further written comments could be shared with my Adviser, Ivaylo Gatev (ivaylo.g.gatev@mfa.bg) and the Secretariat (desa-iisb@un.org).

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
