

1993/205. Coordination segment of the Economic and Social Council of 1993

At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 12 February 1993, the Economic and Social Council, reaffirming the provisions of section III, paragraphs (a) to (e) of its decision 1992/217, and in accordance with General Assembly resolution 45/264 of 13 May 1991, decided:

(a) That the coordination segment should be devoted to the consideration of the following themes:

- (i) Coordination of humanitarian assistance: emergency relief and the continuum to rehabilitation and development;
- (ii) Coordination of the activities of the United Nations system in the fields of preventive action and intensification of the struggle against malaria and diarrhoeal diseases, in particular cholera;

(b) That at the coordination segment agreed conclusions would be reached containing specific recommendations on matters related to coordination addressed to the various parts of the United Nations system for implementation;

(c) To request the Secretary-General to apprise the Council at its substantive session of 1994 of the steps taken by the United Nations system to give effect to those recommendations.
