

1997/319. Themes for the high-level and coordination segments of the 1998 substantive session of the Economic and Social Council and for the high-level meeting of the operational activities segment of that session

At its 46th plenary meeting, on 18 December 1997, the Economic and Social Council, recalling General Assembly resolution 48/162 of 20 December 1993, decided:

(a) That the high-level segment of its 1998 substantive session would be devoted to consideration of the following theme: "Market access: developments since the Uruguay Round, implications, opportunities and challenges, in particular for the developing countries and the least developed among them, in the context of globalization and liberalization";

(b) That the coordination segment of its 1998 substantive session would be devoted to consideration of the following theme: "Coordinated follow-up to and implementation of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action";

(c) That the high-level meeting of the operational activities segment of its 1998 substantive session would be devoted to consideration of the following theme: "Advancement of women: implementation of the Platform for Action of the Fourth World Conference on Women and the role of operational activities in promoting, in particular, capacity-building and resource mobilization for enhancing the participation of women in development".
