

ECOSOC Decision 2002/219

Consultations of the President of the Economic and Social Council with concerned United Nations agencies, funds and programmes

At its 5th plenary meeting, on 30 April 2002, the Economic and Social Council decided to authorize the President of the Council to hold consultations with concerned United Nations agencies, funds and programmes in Rome, Paris, Vienna and Geneva in order to enhance collaboration and coordination among those entities in the Council.